REPORT

Name of Event: An Overview on IPR

Duration of the Event: 06.01.2016

Name of Resource Person: Dr. D. D. Deote

Brief Report:

- 1) The purpose of copyright law is to promote the progress of useful arts and science by protecting the exclusive right of authors and inventors to benefit from their works of authorship.
- 2) Copyright law protects literary, musical, graphic, or other artistic forms in which an author expresses intellectual concepts. In the context of copyright law an author is the creator of any copyrightable creation.
- 3) Allowing the owners of intellectual property to capitalize on what they create provides financial incentives for new, creative ideas.
- 4) By treating intellectual property as largely equal to physical property, it impresses upon economic culture the importance and sanctity of creativity and innovation.
- 5) Intellectual property rights include copyright, patent, trademark, geographic indication of origin, industrial design, trade secrets, database protection laws, publicity rights laws.
