Career Guidance and Counselling Cell meeting held on Wednesday, 23/01/2019

The Career Guidance and Counselling Cell organized a two-hour workshop on career prospects in the field of Life Insurance on 28th January 2019. Two Development Officers— Mr. Chetansinha Bisen and Mr. Akash Jawanjale— were sent by Saoner Branch (district Nagpur) of Life Insurance Corporation (LIC) of India office in response to our invitation to interact with our students and appraise them about various career prospects in the field of life insurance. IQAC Coordinator Dr. Ajiet Jachak introduced the speakers and briefed the students about the changing scenario in job market. Mr. Jawanjale spoke about the necessity of life insurance and highlighted the role played particularly by LIC of India in this field. Senior Development Officer Mr. Bisen talked at length about the necessity of educated youth to enter the marketing field as early as possible so that they would settle in their lives reasonably earlier than others. Discipline and consistency of honest efforts would help the youngsters scale new peaks, he said. There were 62 students who participated in the workshop enthusiastically. Most of them had some question or the other to ask. Both LIC officers satisfied the students.

Dr. M. V. Kolhe, Principal, presided over the function. Dr. Alka Thodge, Dr. Liladhar Kharpuriye, Shri Sanjay Ganorkar— Career Guidance and Counselling Cell— were prominently present in the workshop. Dr. Vinod Bhalerao compered the proceedings while Dr. Dhananjay Deote proposed the vote of thanks.
